The Municipality of Monroeville hereby enacts the Penn Prime Participation Ordinance which states as follows:

1. The Municipality of Monroeville hereby acknowledges membership in the Penn Prime Trust by entering into the Member participation Agreement (hereinafter "Participation Agreement"). As per the InterGovernmental Cooperation Law, 53 P.S. Subsection 481 et seq., this Ordinance sets forth the components of the Penn Prime Trust cooperative arrangement as follows:

(a) The Condition of the Participation Agreement. The Participation Agreement, Agreement of Trust, Coverage Provisions, and By-Laws of the Penn Prime Trust, as amended from time to time, are hereby attached and fully incorporated by reference herein as though they were part hereof.

(b) Duration of the Agreement. The duration of the Participation Agreement is a continuous period commencing on May 11, 1988 until terminated by the Municipality.

(c) Purpose and Objective of the Agreement. The purpose of the Participation Agreement shall be to minimize the financial impact upon the Municipality of Monroeville resulting from an occurrence covered by the Trust. This will be accomplished by means of:

1. loss prevention and safety programs to minimize or eliminate risks of such accidents,
2. risk pooling to share with other local agencies the financial impact of such losses, and
3. the establishment of a mechanism through the Trust to provide risk coverage for catastrophic losses through means deemed appropriate by the Board of Trustees of the Penn Prime Trust.

(d) Manner and Extent of Financing the Agreement. The expenses of participating in this cooperative program will be financed through contributions by the Municipality of Monroeville to the Penn Prime Trust and by investment of the Trust governed by the Board of Trustees.

(e) Organizational Structure to Implement the Agreement. The Participation Agreement will be implemented by the use of the Penn Prime Trust. The Trust is to be administered by the Board of Trustees, which may designate a day-to-day administrator, as established through the provisions of the Agreement of Trust and the By-laws.

(f) Property Acquisition. The Penn Prime Trust, as administered by the Board of Trustees, has the power, through the By-Laws, to acquire, hold or dispose of real or personal property. Such measures by the Trust will be carried out in accordance with the Penn Prime Trust and its By-laws.

(g) Powers to Contract for Group Insurance and Employee Benefits The Penn Prime Trust Agreement sets forth that the Board of Trustees has the power to enter into contracts, incur debts, liabilities and obligations in the ordinary course of business. These powers allow the Penn Prime Trust to enter into such contracts as allowed under 53 P.S. Subsection 487(7) of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Law.

ORDAINED AND ENACTED this 14th day of June, 1988.
